Waiooli August 21st 1867.

Counter offered by Godfrey Rhodes is the land claim of Maialameikuan (No. 852) in Hawaii.
 9663. Vol 329 V3

I have sworn say
 I know the House-Lot of Maialameikuan in Puupahoi-Hawaii. It was given to Ihoa, (the father of Maialameikuan) immediately after the battle of Wahiawa, about the year 1825. This gift embraced Maio-land, a portion of Sea, and some upland where Ihoa resided.

These lands were all held peaceably by Ihoa till Bernard came to Hawaii in 1842. Some time after this Bernard took away the greater part of the land, leaving Ihoa only two Maio-Patotes & the House Lot. These Ihoa held up to his death in 1845. He died very soon after Bernard. After Ihoa's death the two Maio-Patotes & House Lot were in the care of Poornia, brother-in-law of Maialameikuan, for some time, I cannot say how long. Maialamei-kuan was not much on the land, but his sister (Thepauna) who married Poornia lived there till

Her death in 1848. Poomi was employed by Mr F. Wardenberg as a laborer for some time before his wife died, and was still with him at her death.

While Bernard held the Coffee Plantation, Ikoa worked for Bernard and Maialamei here assisted his father at times when the father was ill.

Bernard claimed all the land embraced in the Plantation.

Mr F. Wardenberg sworn says: When I came to Hawaii ~~in 1844~~ I understood that all the land of the Plantation, (without any reserve) belonged to Rhodes & Co. There were then Coffee Trees in the region of the disputed House Lot.

The produce of the land has been gathered without reserve since the fall of 1845.

In 1847 I leased the land on the West side of the river from Mr Rhodes, including the land in dispute, & I knew up to that time of no claim by a native. I have gathered the Oranges since that time up to the present time, without molestation.

This disputed claim I know was sold by the Sheriff with the general Plantation in the year 1845.

When the thing was at Hawaii in 1848. I heard Mr Rhodes say that he had made arrangements to clear the Plantation of native claimants by giving up a considerable portion of the original Plantation on the west side to Govt. or to the King.
By this arrangement I gave up a large part of my land on the western boundary, & received an equivalent on the south-eastern side including the spot in dispute, which spot Capt Hunt had reserved for himself as a House Lot.

previous to Dec. 1847. & has not lied on the claim since that time.

The above evidence taken by me this 21st day of August 1851.

September 25th

Eduard Johnson
Cules Duclot stated that ^{he understood from} from Mr Cudd & Mr Rhodes that the new boundary of the land made by ^{the} the King on his visit to Kaeae was to be unincumbered by any remaining native rights. and that the native tenants were to receive any equivalent in other lands of the King outside of the boundary of the King nothing of any written contract or agreement of the parties to the same, or whether they had ever received any ~~of~~ ^{on} account of an arrangement.
